

INTERNSHIP

OFFICE OF COUNCILMEMBER RAUL PERALEZ, DISTRICT 3

High school seniors, undergraduate and graduate students are invited to apply for an internship opportunity with Councilmember Peralez's Office. This unpaid internship position provides students with a work opportunity and learning experience in the day-to-day operations of a city council office. Service hours, academic credits at the discretion of your university, and a letter of recommendation are available upon completion of the term. Student interns are expected to have a willingness to learn and apply their academic training to the required job assignments.
